A hot breakfast will be served before we head off on our Amazing Antique Hunt. On the east bank of the Fox River we enjoy a welcome reception, complete with coffee & cookies. Then explore the historic shops of Century Corners and 3rd Street – a unique collection of shops in downtown St. Charles. We will then gather our finds, load the coach and head over to Antique Markets I & III where more than 50 dealers offer their treasure trove of antiques & collectibles. Included lunch will be enjoyed at The Filling Station Grill, filled with nostalgic "filling station" memorabilia. After a fun & yummy lunch we head to historic Geneva just a short jaunt from St. Charles for our next antique adventure. Start at the Little Traveler and visit the many other antique shops in the area. The evening tops off the day with a fabulous dinner and live theatre at Pheasant Run Resort. The new Mainstage Theatre is featuring 'state of the art' sound & lighting.

We have the opportunity to browse the booths of more than a thousand quality dealers featuring antiques, collectibles and "fancy junk". The evening dinner is included at Sweet Tomatoes featuring the longest salad bar in all of Illinois. We'll spend the rest of the evening elaborating on our fantastic finds and enjoy "show & tell" to all.
