Day 1 – Home to Fort Atkinson

We depart this morning for a few fun-filled days in Wisconsin. Get to know your fellow traveling companions as we roll along the beautiful hills of Wisconsin. As a tribute to Mothers, we will enjoy a special time sharing a fond Mother’s Day memory about ourselves or our Mother. A delicious lunch (with pie!) is planned at the Norske Nook. We are in for a real treat this evening at the Fireside Theatre in Ft. Atkinson. Following a tasty buffet dinner, the spectacular Broadway Show 42nd Street comes alive! When an aspiring chorus girl, Peggy Sawyer, comes to NYC from Allentown PA, she soon lands her first big job in the ensemble of a glitzy new Broadway show. Then just before opening night, the leading lady breaks her ankle. Will Peggy be able to step in and become a star? This ultimate show-biz musical will be the perfect ending to a wonderful day!

Day 2 – Fort Atkinson to Wisconsin Dells

Our day begins with breakfast at the hotel. We will then depart for Clausen European Bakery where we will enjoy many samples, a cup of coffee, and a special Mother’s Day cookie! Next, we are off to the National Mustard Museum, where we will find many great recipes for all our cooking needs. Afterwards a wonderful lunch is served at The Old Feed Mill, where we’ll hear about its rich history dating back to 1857! As we continue on to the Dells, we will make a stop at a great hidden treasure up on a hill, St. Norberts Catholic Church. This is a modest but stately architectural treasure situated on the hilltop in the center of the Wisconsin hamlet called Roxbury in Sauk County. We will check into the Hampton Inn & Suites in Wisconsin Dells before we’re treated to dinner and the musical “Happy Days: A New Musical” at the Palace Theatre. Containing the much-loved Happy Days theme song from the TV show, “Happy Days: A New Musical” is a hilarious, feel-good musical that is guaranteed to have us rockin’ and rollin’ all evening long!
