Yellowstone National Park - bison getting their fill before winter!

Wherever your travels take you during your visit, you have a real western adventure in store! The Wyoming state insignia, a cowboy waving his Stetson Hat while riding on the back of a bucking horse says it all. This is classic cowboy country, a land of wide open grasslands stretching for miles in every direction. There are fewer than a half million people that inhabit an area nearly 100,000 sq. miles. For visitors the main attractions of Wyoming are in the northwestern corner where the twin spectacles of Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks attract some three million visitors annually.

We know what's in store as you travel the state: great places, people and memories. Wyoming is home to some of the best national parks and monuments. Wyoming is home to the world's first National Park, Yellowstone; the first National Monument, Devils Tower; the first National Forest, Shoshone; the picturesque, Teton Mountain Range; and deeply rooted Western Culture and spirit.

Wyoming is a place where you can roam free and experience what it's like to be somewhere truly forever West. This spirit not only lives on in the wide open spaces and views, but also in Wyoming citizens. Wyoming is truly what America once was. It is said to be the wild, wholly west at its best! It has the largest intact ecosystem in the lower 48 states meaning that all of the species that have roamed this sweeping mountain plateau are still in residence. Yellowstone was signed into being by President Ulysses Grant in 1872, and covers 2.2 million acres. Lamar Valley is known as the "Little Serengeti" of North America, it's magnificent in its wildness and uniquely American.

Day 1 - Home to Lincoln, NE

"Go West" they told us, so that's exactly what we'll spend our day doing. Make special note of the changing landscape out the motorcoach windows as we travel through the forested rolling hillsides, into rich, open farmland of southern Minnesota and Iowa before we cross over to the flat prairie of Nebraska. We'll travel westward to Lincoln, NE, our resting place for the night.

Continuing our travels west today we travel along I-80 which follows the paths that early pioneers followed. WYOMING TRAVEL TIPS

- 1) Plan to bring layers - Jackets and rain gear are a must.
- 2) Plan to disconnect - Connections to the outside world are fairly limited.
- 3) Keep your eyes open - Bring cameras and binoculars.
- 4) Keep at least 25 feet away from the wild animals - Remember they are wild!

Day 4 - Laramie to Lander, WY

After a restful night and a hot breakfast at our hotel we begin our scenic drive up over the mountains. We leave the interstate and take the backroads across the Medicine Bow Mountains and over Snowy Range Pass, an elevation of 10,847 ft. The vistas from the top are unbelievable! We'll take plenty of time for stops and pictures and breathing in that fresh mountain air! As we come down off of the mountain pass we have a wonderful lunch awaiting us at the Silver Saddle Restaurant in the Saratoga Hot Springs Resort. We continue on towards Lander and visit Sinks Canyon of the Wind River Range. The canyon is named for a unique geologic formation, The Sinks, where the river vanishes underground only to resurface a quarter mile downstream in a dark blue trout infested deep pool. We can clearly observe this phenomenon. Overnight is at the beautiful, new Holiday Inn Express in Lander. A pizza party at the hotel enables us to share the highlights of the day.

Yellowstone National Park - Artist Point, an overlook point on the edge of a cliff on the south rim of the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone - breathtaking!

We'll stop in Canyon Village where you will have an opportunity to enjoy lunch and pick up a park souvenir or two. Then it's up over Dunraven Pass at a height of over 8850 ft for more spectacular views. We descend towards Tower Falls and then we drive across the Lamar Valley where we will watch for buffalo, elk and maybe a pack of wolves. Up we go towards the North East Exit of the park where we will take a break in Cooke City before we travel the picturesque Chief Joseph highway. We'll be traveling down through the beautiful Absaroka Wilderness as we look for elk, antelope, and maybe a bear on our way into Cody.

Day 8 - Cody, WY

We spend the entire day exploring in and around Cody. Cody is a "western paradise." A fascinating part of our history we know little about. Then back to town for lunch at Buffalo Bill's Historic Irma Hotel. You'll have time following lunch to browse the many shops surrounding the Irma on Main Street. After some browsing time, we go directly to the Buffalo Bill Center of the West. This is a world renowned Smithsonian destination for millions – No other place like it in the world! This is self-guided and you may explore them all. We are in for a real treat tonight!

Day 9 – Cody to Sheridan, WY

This morning following breakfast in the old Saloon we travel to “Old Trail Town”. Here we experience a collection of 26 authentic buildings from the mid to late 1800’s that have been relocated to the original town site of Cody. You’ll discover original cabins of well-known mountain men and outlaws such as Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid; a rare “window” into life in the Old West. We depart Cody mid- morning and begin our travels towards the Bighorn Mountain range. We’ll travel a beautiful mountain road with many magnificent vistas along the way. A stop at Shell Falls will show us the impressive power of water as it plummets over the falls and cuts out a magnificent canyon. Later among the pine trees at the top in a classic mountain setting, we find lunch at Bear Lodge. Our destination this afternoon is Sheridan, a gem of a city nestled in the foothills of the Bighorn Mountains. Sheridan’s main street is one of the most vibrant we’ve seen and authentically western. Here we find King’s Saddlery, a genuine western store for the American cowboy and rancher. This is also where you can witness the legendary King Ropes (cowboy lariats) being made. These aren’t toys or a hobby, these are the real thing! Don King’s Western Museum is where you can touch, smell, feel and learn about the western lifestyle.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch
Hotel: Comfort Inn & Suites

Day 10 – Sheridan to Ucross, WY

This morning following breakfast at our hotel, we are invited to the Brinton Museum on the historic Quarter Circle A Ranch at the foot of the Bighorn Mountains. We tour the Ranch House & Gardens and view some of the finest American Indian and Western Art in the country. Enjoy lunch right at the Museum’s Brinton Bristo before departing to visit “Trail End,” the historic mansion of the John B. Kendrick family, which will provide us with an elegantly different aspect of Sheridan’s rich and colorful history. As we journey on to our truly authentic experience for the evening, note the “big sky” and awesome wide open landscape – you may see more antelope than trees! The Ranch at Ucross, one of America’s most unique and superb “dude ranches,” is western hospitality at its very best! Just relax and enjoy the setting, the ranch meals, the cowboy singer and the comfortable accommodations.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
Hotel: Ucross Ranch

Day 11 – Ucross to Rapid City, SD

Enjoy a hearty ranch breakfast and a leisurely morning before we depart. Our destination today is Rapid City; however, we’ll make several stops along the way. First to Gillette, one of those free spirited western boom towns. To give us a little clearer understanding of the area, we’ll visit the Rock Pile Museum. Next, we travel through the unknown, forgotten but scenic Bear Lodge Mountains to imposing Devils Tower. Rising 865 feet above the surrounding prairie, it can be seen up to 50 miles away on a clear day. Recognized as one of America’s most identifiable natural landmarks, the Tower was designated as the country’s first National Monument by President Teddy Roosevelt in 1906. Our “backroads” experience continues with a stop at the historic Aladdin General Store for some treasures. Built in 1896, it’s still operating and not much has changed since then. We’ll continue our journey and when we see the dark silhouette of the Black Hills we know we are close to our resting place for the evening, Rapid City. Tonight we’ll enjoy a farewell dinner at a local steakhouse.
