

SPRING TRAINING

ESCAPE THE COLD WINTER AIR TO ENJOY SOME GREAT BASEBALL IN SUNNY FORT MYERS, FLORIDA!

We're going back in 2012!
March 3 - 10, 2012 (8 Days)

Dear friends,
Set aside time now for a great winter get-a-way. Join us for a flyaway Spring Training bonanza to Fort Myers, Florida in 2012. Don your shorts and sandals and leave the cold snow drifts behind to experience baseball in the warm sunshine in early March. Enjoy direct flights to/from Fort Myers for your convenience!

Enjoy our deluxe and spacious accommodations at the beautiful Homewood Suites conveniently located in spectacular Bell Tower. Close at hand, enjoy a variety of fantastic dining, unique, one of a kind specialty shops and great entertainment, bank, salons, drug store, all within easy walking distance and only minutes from the Twins Training Center at Hammond Field. Enjoy shuttle service to Hammond Field. Great reserved seats for the ball games will be awaiting you and you'll also have time to watch your favorite players work out in leisurely spring style.

We'll also take in some sightseeing trips and take an optional fascinating airboat ride in the Everglades (at own expense). We'll experience great food at the Blue Point Oyster Bar and the Beach Pier-side Grill right on fabulous Fort Myers Beach. We've added new things like "My Fair Lady" at the Barbara Mann Theatre, Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre Train, and more!

You'll have time on your own to golf some of SW Florida's great courses, and take in a game at another nearby ballpark. Take this one opportunity to attend spring training games with a chance to get autographs! This tour will fill quickly!
