After our flight, we'll head for the San Jose Mission, founded in 1720. Next we'll check into the Drury Inn Riverwalk for a relaxing four night stay right in the heart of the festivities. As we get to know our fellow travelers, we will enjoy a delicious dinner at the Texas Land & Cattle Steakhouse this evening.

Day 2 - Riverwalk

After breakfast at the hotel, we'll depart on a guided city tour. Next we'll spend time shopping at the El Mercado, a large, authentic Mexican Market featuring a vast range of goods, food, and entertainment. Lunch is on your own to choose from one of the market's restaurants. Our journey to San Antonio would not be complete without visiting the Mission San Antonio de Valero, also known as The Alamo. Explore this famous fort, originally constructed in 1724, and learn more about its rich history as you watch the remarkable IMAX movie, Alamo – The Price of Freedom. This evening we will take in a Christmas event that will truly be entertaining. (Full venue details were not available at time of print.)

Day 3 - Fredericksburg

Breakfast is served at the hotel before we board the motorcoach for a narrated, driving tour of the LBJ Ranch. You'll have the opportunity to tour the Texas White House. Then we'll motor to Fredericksburg for shopping and lunch on our own, followed by an included tour of the National Museum of the Pacific War. The history of the Pacific War will come alive as we walk through the life of Chester Nimitz, a highly respected leader of the Pacific campaign of WWII. A special dinner is planned at the Knibbe Ranch this evening. We start off with a tour aboard a hay trailer, given by the ranch owner himself, Chuck Knibbe, followed by a Bar BQ dinner! Then it will be your turn to take in the splendid views from the river as you enjoy an evening river cruise.

This morning we will tour the impressive Witte Museum. Enjoy some time viewing natural history, from dinosaur bones & cave drawings to South Texas heritage & textiles. The afternoon and evening is at your leisure to enjoy the Christmas festivities at the Riverwalk.
