Tour Pearl Harbor National Memorial Park. Cruise by Navy Launch to the sunken USS Arizona. This is a moment you won't forget as your thoughts turn to Dec. 7, 1941 and the beginning of World War II. This impressive Memorial to the 1,102 men still entombed will be a special moment of the trip. Sightseeing includes Hawaii's State Capitol, Iolani Palace, Punchbowl, Kawaiahao Church, and Kamehameha Statue. Motor through lush rain forest to the Nu'uuanu Pali Lookout for a scenic view of Honolulu and the valley below. Explore more of Waikiki on your own tonight.

Day 3 - Honolulu/Waikiki

Today we're in for a real treat with a visit to the Dole Pineapple Plantation for a tour, garden viewing, instructions on how to properly cut a pineapple, and possibly some pineapple treats to try! The Dole Plantation is one of the only remaining pineapple plantations in Hawaii. Originally operated as a fruit stand beginning in 1950, Dole Plantation opened to the public as Hawaii's "Pineapple Experience" in 1989. Today, Dole Plantation is one of Oahu's most popular visitor attractions and welcomes more than one million visitors a year. Once we leave the plantation, Oahu's stunning North Shore is just a short drive away. This time of the year should be the best time for seeing some of the biggest and most dangerous surfing waves along the beaches. No worries; we won't be stopping to surf, but do take a look at these epic waves! We'll spend the rest of the afternoon and evening at another one of the island's most popular cultural centers: the Polynesian Cultural Center, voted the #1 attraction in Hawaii by USA Today. We'll explore 42 acres of tropical splendor featuring 6 authentic villages representing the island cultures of Hawaii, Fiji, Aotearoa (New Zealand), Samoa, Tahiti, and Tonga. Mingle with Pacific islanders as they share the majesty of their culture through music, dance, and traditional hands-on activities. Enjoy the wonderful island luau before finishing off our adventure through the power of "Ha: Breath of Life," an action-packed evening show. Ignited by fire, song and dance featur-

These Japanese code words signal that surprise is complete. Those who see the low-flying planes think it is a training exercise. The first wave hits its targets just before 0755.
