Three reasons to visit Yellowstone in the winter:

- 1) The beautiful scenery.
- 2) No crowds - watch Old Faithful with 30 people instead of 3,000!
- 3) See more wildlife! The animals come "down" out of the mountains in the winter.

This evening, enjoy dinner together as we look ahead to our great adventure.

Day 5 - Yellowstone to Jackson, WY

After a good night's sleep, we'll check out and take a very short drive to the Grizzly & Wolf Discovery Center. After being greeted by a naturalist, enjoy exploring the center on your own, viewing majestic grizzly bears, gray wolves, river otters, birds of prey and more! Lucky for us, the Center's grizzly bears do not hibernate. This allows us to watch their fascinating behaviors, especially since the keepers hide food in their habitat, stock the pond with live trout, and rearrange features regularly - all to stimulate the bears both mentally and physically like in the wild! Be sure to check out their newly opened Yellowstone Ecosystem Wildlife and Nature Exhibits. Departing, we'll travel southwest into Idaho, stopping for a scenic lunch at Lakeside Lodge, boasting panoramic views of the Island Park Reservoir. Continuing south and heading back into Wyoming, our destination is Jackson, the center of activity for the famous Jackson Hole Area. Our home for the next two nights is the Rustic Inn Creekside Resort, a boutique resort full of luxurious, western charm! Settling into our private, 400 sq. ft. Superior Cabins will be easy with their vaulted ceiling, grand windows letting in the natural light, spa bathroom with rain shower, and adirondack chairs on their private veranda! Home to the world's largest private collection of U.S. military ground transportation vehicles on display to the public, this museum honors the history of American freedom and the service & sacrifice of our veterans and their families. At the canteen, we'll grab a boxed lunch to bring onto the motorcoach. We then continue our journey through Wyoming, with mountain peaks, forests, and ranges all around us. This will be a beautiful drive as we travel into Laramie for our evening stop.
